

the SAN JUAN PRESERVATION TRUST

GRAHAM PRESERVE, SHAW ISLAND

VISITOR GUIDELINES

- No bicycles allowed
- Pets must be leashed at all times
- Harvesting of plants, animals, driftwood, firewood, and other natural objects is prohibited except by special permission
- Do not feed or approach wildlife
- Hike on established footpaths and respect surrounding private property
- No camping or fires allowed
- Pack out all garbage including food and pet waste
- No firearms or hunting allowed

ACCESSING THE GRAHAM PRESERVE

SJPT's Graham Preserve is located on Shaw Island. There is parking near the north trailhead at the Shaw Community Center located at the corner of Blind Bay and Squaw Bay Roads, approx. 1.5 miles from the ferry landing. Park nearest the center and away from Public Works buildings. The closest parking to the south entrance is at Shaw County Park. There are SJPT "Protected Lands" signs installed at the north and south trailhead entrances.

Graham Preserve
New Trail in Yellow

